

DIVERSIONS

February 18, 1966

Emory Riddle Aeronautical University, Daytona Beach, Florida

Number 5

Caruso rocks Riddle!

Commentary

Create your own diversion

Welcome to this semester's third edition of Diversions; we hope you didn't miss us too much. In accordance with our bi-weekly schedule we should have gone to print last week, but we decided to delay for two reasons: (1) It was a slow month for entertainment so we waited an extra week to amass enough articles in order to produce an issue worthy of our readership that doesn't resemble a thin piece of tissue paper, and (2) to realign our publication schedule so that we don't interfere with the Spring '86 issue of Creations Literary Magazine which is to be inserted into the March 26 issue of the Avion.

We hope you won't mind the schedule change (even though you probably didn't notice... c'mon people, wake up out there!).

And speaking of Creations, we here at Diversions would like to take this time to promote this noteworthy publication. For those of you who are unfamiliar with Creations, it is a Embry-Riddle's bi-annual literary magazine that serves as a outlet for your creative energies. If you have a poem, short story, essay, photograph, sketch, or any other form of art we urge you to submit your entries (as many as you want) to Jackie Berg's office (A-230) before March 7.

Creations is put together during the Spring and Fall trimesters by a staff comprised of members of Sigma Tau Delta (the National English Honor Society), the ERAU Society for Collegiate Journalists, and the Avion newspaper. It provides an excellent opportunity for you to see your ideas in print. This trimester's issue is scheduled to be inserted into the next to last issue of the Avion (March 26) in high-quality magazine form.

The staff of Diversions heartily support the concept of a literary magazine here at Embry-Riddle because Creations is certainly a diversion in its own right from the highly technical and mechanized atmosphere of this university.

In this issue...

Events Calendar	page 3
Happenings on campus and around the area
Games	page 4
Try your hand at our crossword puzzle
Flicks	page 5
Our critics check out "F/X"
Albums	page 6
Scott Peters reviews no less than six hot new releases
Up 'N Coming	page 7
"Up With People" hits Daytona
Campus	page 8
"Crimo" rocks the University Center

Cover Photo/Scott Peters

Diversionsa supplement to the avion

an extra week to amass enough articles in order to produce an issue worthy of our readership that doesn't resemble a thin piece of tissue paper, and (2) to realign our publication schedule so that we don't interfere with the Spring '86 issue of Creations Literary Magazine which is to be inserted into the March 26 issue of the Avion.

We hope you won't mind the schedule change (even though you probably didn't notice... c'mon people, wake up out there!).

And speaking of Creations, we here at Diversions would like to take this time to promote this noteworthy publication. For those of you who are unfamiliar with Creations, it is a Embry-Riddle's bi-annual literary magazine that serves as a outlet for your creative energies. If you have a poem, short story, essay, photograph, sketch, or any other form of art we urge you to submit your entries (as many as you want) to Jackie Berg's office (A-230) before March 7.

Creations is put together during the Spring and Fall trimesters by a staff comprised of members of Sigma Tau Delta (the National English Honor Society), the ERAU Society for Collegiate Journalists, and the Avion newspaper. It provides an excellent opportunity for you to see your ideas in print. This trimester's issue is scheduled to be inserted into the next to last issue of the Avion (March 26) in high-quality magazine form.

The staff of Diversions heartily support the concept of a literary magazine here at Embry-Riddle because Creations is certainly a diversion in its own right from the highly technical and mechanized atmosphere of this university.

Events Calendar	page 3
Happenings on campus and around the area
Games	page 4
Try your hand at our crossword puzzle
Flicks	page 5
Our critics check out "F/X"
Albums	page 6
Scott Peters reviews no less than six hot new releases
Up 'N Coming	page 7
"Up With People" hits Daytona
Campus	page 8
"Crimo" rocks the University Center

Cover Photo/Scott Peters

Diversionsa supplement to the avion

EDITOR:

Timothy Marlowald

STAFF REPORTERS

Scott Peters
Jeff Gustafson
Tim Van Milligan
John Trombly
Pete Merlin

CALENDAR GRAPHICS:

Tim Van Milligan

February 1986

						1
2	3	4	5	6	7	8
9	10	11	12	13	14	15
16	17	18	19	20	21	22
23	24	25	26	27	28

Stetler Brothers
Ocean Center
Hof Shofon
8 p.m. Lakeland
Civic Center

Air Brush Expo
Atlantic Arts
FREE call 257-5545

J.R. Roberts
8 p.m. U.C.

"Come Blow Your Horn"
8 p.m. Daytona Playhouse

"Up With People"
Feb. 23-28
Peabody Auditorium

John Cougar Mellencamp
8 p.m. Lakeland
Civic Center. Also Feb. 27th
Jacksonville Vets Memorial Coliseum

Medical Company
By Stephen Goodstein.
DBCC Theater Center

Nita Gaylor
8 p.m. Lakeland Civic Center
Movie: "Breuster's Millions"
8:30 p.m. U.C.

March 1986

						1
2	3	4	5	6	7	8
9	10	11	12	13	14	15
16	17	18	19	20	21	22
23	24	25	26	27	28	29

"Rembo: First Blood Part 2"
8:30 p.m. U.C.

Loverboy
8 p.m. Lakeland Civic Center
also Mar. 9 Jacksonville
Vets Memorial Coliseum

Southern Ballet
DBCC Theater Center

Amy Grant
Lakeland Civic Center
also Mar. 8 Jacksonville
Vets Memorial Coliseum

Movie: "Invasion USA"
8:30 p.m. U.C.

Henry Mancini
8 p.m. Lakeland Civic Center

Carl Rosen - pianist
5 p.m. U.C.

The Firm
8 p.m. Ocean Center

22 Top

March 1986

						1
2	3	4	5	6	7	8
9	10	11	12	13	14	15
16	17	18	19	20	21	22
23	24	25	26	27	28	29
30	31

"Rembo: First Blood Part 2"
8:30 p.m. U.C.

Loverboy
8 p.m. Lakeland Civic Center
also Mar. 9 Jacksonville
Vets Memorial Coliseum

Southern Ballet
DBCC Theater Center

Amy Grant
Lakeland Civic Center
also Mar. 8 Jacksonville
Vets Memorial Coliseum

Movie: "Invasion USA"
8:30 p.m. U.C.

Anna Murray
8 p.m. Ocean Center

Henry Mancini
8 p.m. Lakeland Civic Center

Carl Rosen - pianist
5 p.m. U.C.

The Firm
8 p.m. Ocean Center

22 Top
Jacksonville
Vets Memorial Coliseum

Eastern Surfing
Association Championship
Mar. 24-28, Daytona Beach

Aeromith
Jacksonville Vets
Memorial Coliseum

The College Press Service Crossword Puzzle

ACROSS

- 1 Part of fireplace
5 Corded cloth
9 Hike lightly
10 Solitude
13 A Galois
14 Seed coating
15 Wooden vessel
16 Pastime
18 The self
19 Sun god
20 Pintail duck
21 Printer's measure
23 Corner:
abbr.
24 Part of jacket
26 Plague
28 Permit
29 Male sheep
30 Yearly: abbr.
32 Animal coat
33 Watch pocket

- 34 Singing voice
35 Guide's high
note
36 Binet jump
37 Lock of hair
38 Period of time
40 Old name for Thailand
41 Greek letter
43 Roman 51
44 Mast
45 Full-time service
abbr.
47 Time gone by 49 Boon
51 Beverage
52 Disney
53 Woody plant
56 Merry
57 Poem

DOWN

- 1 Cicatrix
2 Side by s:
3 Irrigate 4 Symbol for:
tallium
5 Reputable
6 Cry of Bacchanals
7 Equality 8 Symbol for:
tantalum
9 Exit
10 Coloring substances
11 Wild plum
18 Merganser
17 Abound
20 Bleach
22 Parent colloq
25 Paddy
26 Flap

- 27 Capital of Oregon
28 Land measure
31 Numbers: abbr.
33 Distant
34 Sarcenet tree
36 Blouse
37 Crown
38 Spanish article
40 Squander
41 Agreement
42 Man's name
44 Withered
45 Century plant
46 Lair
48 Single 50 Recent
51 Succor
53 Compass point
54 As far as

© 1984 United Feature Syndicate

Answers on page 5

VOLUSIA COUNTY'S HOME OF RENT TO OWN!

TV & APPLIANCE
Champion
RENTALS

TELEVISIONS • STEREOS

APPLIANCES • FURNITURE

SUPER
2 for 1
SALE
 PAY THE FIRST FULL
 WEEK'S RENT ON ANY ITEM
 AND RECIEVE THE SECOND WEEK FREE!!

- 12 Solitude
13 A Galois
14 Seed coating
15 Wooden vessel
16 Pastime
18 The self
19 Sun god
20 Pintail duck
21 Printer's measure
23 Corner:
abbr.
24 Part of jacket
26 Plague
28 Permit
29 Male sheep
30 Yearly: abbr.
32 Animal coat
33 Watch pocket

- 34 Singing voice
35 Guide's high
note
36 Binet jump
37 Lock of hair
38 Period of time
40 Old name for Thailand
41 Greek letter
43 Roman 51
44 Mast
45 Full-time service
abbr.
47 Time gone by 49 Boon
51 Beverage
52 Disney
53 Woody plant
56 Merry
57 Poem

- 4 Symbol for:
tallium
5 Reputable
6 Cry of Bacchanals
7 Equality 8 Symbol for:
tantalum
9 Exit
10 Coloring
substances
11 Wild plum
18 Merganser
17 Abound
20 Bleach
22 Parent colloq
25 Paddy
26 Flap

- 27 Capital of Oregon
28 Land measure
31 Numbers: abbr.
33 Distant
34 Sarcenet tree
36 Blouse
37 Crown
38 Spanish article
40 Squander
41 Agreement
42 Man's name
44 Withered
45 Century plant
46 Lair
48 Single 50 Recent
51 Succor
53 Compass point
54 As far as

© 1984 United Feature Syndicate

Answers on page 5

VOLUSIA COUNTY'S HOME OF RENT TO OWN!

TV & APPLIANCE
Champion
RENTALS

TELEVISIONS • STEREOS

APPLIANCES • FURNITURE

SUPER
2 for 1
SALE
 PAY THE FIRST FULL
 WEEK'S RENT ON ANY ITEM
 AND RECIEVE THE SECOND WEEK FREE!!

Bring ERAU ID For Instant Approval!

DAYTONA

236 North Nova Road
(Across from Daytona Mall)

252-8122

VIDEO CASSETTE RECORDERS

WORRY FREE! Repairs are our problem - not yours! Prompt service for replacement is provided to you free of charge!
 What easier way is there to get a top-quality name-brand product?

HOLLY HILL

Masonovs Shopping Center
(Corner of Mason and Nova)

255-2005

F/X

Released by Orion Pictures

Starring Bryan Brown, Brian Dennehy

Playing at the Daytona Six Theatres

 By Pete Merlin
Avion Staff Reporter

 F/X
Orion Pictures Release

 Our Rating:

If you want to see a movie with action, suspense, and great special effects, see F/X! An Orion Pictures release, F/X is currently showing at the Daytona Six Theatres.

Robert Mandel directed this thriller about a famous special effects (F/X) man named Roland Tyler, played by Bryan Brown (from The Thorn Birds), who becomes enmeshed in a web of intrigue and betrayal. Tyler is hired by the Justice Department to use his unique talents to stage a fake assassination of a mobster who is about to testify against his cronies. With the mob thinking him dead, the ex-mafioso could disappear into the government's Witness Relocation Program.

The action begins in earnest when Tyler's employers try to murder him when the job is over. After some gratuitous sex and violence, the body count begins to climb, bringing the New York Homicide Squad into the picture. A tough police detective, played by Brian Dennehy (from First Blood and Cocoon), uncovers some unusual facts and begins to suspect that something is amiss in the Justice Department. Meanwhile, Tyler is on the run and seeking revenge. He uses all his talents to stay a step ahead of the bad guys.

The movie includes some exciting car chases and interesting locations. The set for Tyler's studio loft is decorated with the gory creations of movie newcomer Bryant Tausk. Special makeup effects for F/X were created by Carl Fullerton (Wolfen), and John Cagione and D. Drexler (Amityville 2: The Possession).

To give away all of the interesting plot twists and clever gimmicks which give F/X its magic, would do the viewer a great injustice. This suspense thriller is a must see! It will keep you guessing to the very end.

How we rate them...

-  Excellent...see it twice!
-  Very good...worth going to
-  So so...a few redeeming qualities
-  Below average...don't go out of your way
-  Truly rotten...a waste of perfectly good film

Graphics by Pete Morin

ANSWERS

to crossword on page 4

S	P	I	T	A	E	P	T	A	P	S
C	A	R	E	E	V	A	A	R	I	L
A	R	K	S	P	O	R	T	E	G	O
A	R	A	S	M	E	E	N	E	E
L	A	P	E	L	E	A	S	E
A	L	L	O	O	N	A	N	A
F	E	L	T	O	O	A	L	V	O
E	L	A	A	O	A	T	R	E	S	S
Y	E	A	R	A	S	I	A
P	I	L	T	S	P	A	A	A	A
A	L	L	O	O	N	E	E	A
C	O	N	S	E	C	R	E	M	A	T
T	R	E	E	E

KILROY WAS HERE ENTERTAINMENT

For a good time call 257-7719

$2.00 off any new, regularly priced LP, tape or compact disk

We carry the largest selection of picture disks in the South! Let us make a picture disk clock for you!

E.R.A.U STUDENTS RECEIVE 2 FREE RENTALS WITH ONE YEAR MEMBERSHIP $14.99

Orion Pictures Release

 Our Rating:

If you want to see a movie with action, suspense, and great special effects, see F/X! An Orion Pictures release, F/X is currently showing at the Daytona Six Theatres.

who becomes enmeshed in a web of intrigue and betrayal. Tyler is hired by the Justice Department to stage a fake assassination of a mobster who is about to testify against his cronies. With the mob thinking him dead, the ex-mafioso could disappear into the murder him when the job is over. After some gratuitous sex and violence, the body count begins to climb, bringing the New York Homicide Squad into the picture. A tough police detective, played by Brian Dennehy (from First Blood and Cocoon), uncovers some unusual facts and begins to suspect that something is amiss in the Justice Department. Meanwhile, Tyler is on the run and seeking revenge. He uses all his talents to stay a step ahead of the bad guys.

The movie includes some exciting car chases and interesting locations. The set for Tyler's studio loft is decorated with the gory creations of movie newcomer Bryant Tausk. Special makeup effects for F/X were created by Carl Fullerton (Wolfen), and interesting plot twists and clever gimmicks which give F/X its magic, would do the viewer a great injustice. This suspense thriller is a must see! It will keep you guessing to the very end.

How we rate them...

-  Excellent...see it twice!
-  Very good...worth going to
-  So so...a few redeeming qualities
-  Below average...don't go out of your way
-  Truly rotten...a waste of perfectly good film

Graphics by Pete Morin

ANSWERS

to crossword on page 4

S	P	I	T	A	E	P	T	A	P	S
C	A	R	E	E	V	A	A	R	I	L
A	R	K	S	P	O	R	T	E	G	O
A	R	A	S	M	E	E	N	E	E
L	A	P	E	L	E	A	S	E
A	L	L	O	O	N	A	N	A
F	E	L	T	O	O	A	L	V	O
E	L	A	A	O	A	T	R	E	S	S
Y	E	A	R	A	S	I	A
P	I	L	T	S	P	A	A	A	A
A	L	L	O	O	N	E	E	A
C	O	N	S	E	C	R	E	M	A	T
T	R	E	E	E

KILROY WAS HERE ENTERTAINMENT

For a good time call 257-7719

$2.00 off any new, regularly priced LP, tape or compact disk

We carry the largest selection of picture disks in the South! Let us make a picture disk clock for you! Choose from these artists and many more: Madonna, Marilyn Monroe, Elvis Presley, Motley Crue, The Beatles, Dire Straits.

E.R.A.U STUDENTS RECEIVE 2 FREE RENTALS WITH ONE YEAR MEMBERSHIP $14.99

FREE RENTALS LIFETIME $19.99

Located in Daytona Mall

Mon-Thurs 10-9, Fri, Sat 10-10, Sun 12-6

KILROY WAS HERE ENTERTAINMENT
Daytona Mall
Rent one movie and receive one FREE (EXP 2/26/86)

FREE Overnight Movie Rental

ALBUMS

By Scott Peters
Avion Staff Reporter

Uriah Heep

Equator

Comebacks are always difficult, particularly for bands that never really made it big the first time out. This is the case with Uriah Heep. While they weren't total unknowns, they never really achieved massive popularity. Now they're back trying to find their audience all over again. They've reformed around surviving members Mick Box and Peter Goalby and have added Lee Kerslake (the drummer on Ozzy Osbourne's first two albums), so the makings are there for a really kick ass band. Unfortunately, they've gone the way of ZZ Top and decided that commercial music is the way to go. This leaves a rather second rate effort as a result. What could have been an amazing comeback success, becomes a shocking bit of mediocrity.

Blue Oyster Cult

Club Ninja

This, the long awaited new release from the Long Island rockers is, in many ways, a supreme disappointment. It just lacks the flair of their previous releases. Heck, even the title is bad. Eric Bloom and Buck Dharma Roesser seem to have stretched their song writing talents too long. The only memorable song is Spy In The House Of The Night and even that's nothing worth writing home about. The band's sound has definitely suffered somewhere along the line. It's a shame that the band has come so far, only to lose their old and trusty sound seemingly overnight. Truly a shame.

Ozzy Osbourne

The Ultimate Sin

The Oz is back, but not as most head-banging metal maniacs might like him. New guitarist Jake E. Lee is no Randy Rhodes, and that's fine with me, because this album does quite well without the excessive flash and mile-a-minute guitar solos that were Rhodes' trademark. What this album lacks in pure speed and volume, it more than makes up for in substance. With 9 really good songs, all recalling the olden days of Black Sabbath, this album is a step in the right direction for Ozzy. Ozzy, himself, has never sounded better. This is a really great album that is, by the way, anti nuclear weapons in concept. And there's not one satanic reference anywhere on it! Except maybe the Boris Vallejo cover.

Records and review materials courtesy of Atlantic Sounds,
138 Volusia Avenue, Daytona Beach.

The Firm

Mean Business

The successful follow-up to their debut.

Wynnton Marsalis

Hot House Flowers

The Church

Heyday

Uriah Heep

Equator

Comebacks are always difficult, particularly for bands that never really made it big the first time out. This is the case with Uriah Heep. While they weren't total unknowns, they never really achieved massive popularity. Now they're back trying to find their audience all over again. They've reformed around surviving members Mick Box and Peter Goalby and have added Lee Kerslake (the drummer on Ozzy Osbourne's first two albums), so the makings are there for a really kick ass band. Unfortunately, they've gone the way of ZZ Top and decided that commercial music is the way to go. This leaves a rather second rate effort as a result. What could have been an amazing comeback success, becomes a shocking bit of mediocrity.

Blue Oyster Cult

Club Ninja

This, the long awaited new release from the Long Island rockers is, in many ways, a supreme disappointment. It just lacks the flair of their previous releases. Heck, even the title is bad. Eric Bloom and Buck Dharma Roesser seem to have stretched their song writing talents too long. The only memorable song is Spy In The House Of The Night and even that's nothing worth writing home about. The band's sound has definitely suffered somewhere along the line. It's a shame that the band has come so far, only to lose their old and trusty sound seemingly overnight. Truly a shame.

Ozzy Osbourne

The Ultimate Sin

The Oz is back, but not as most head-banging metal maniacs might like him. New guitarist Jake E. Lee is no Randy Rhodes, and that's fine with me, because this album does quite well without the excessive flash and mile-a-minute guitar solos that were Rhodes' trademark. What this album lacks in pure speed and volume, it more than makes up for in substance. With 9 really good songs, all recalling the olden days of Black Sabbath, this album is a step in the right direction for Ozzy. Ozzy, himself, has never sounded better. This is a really great album that is, by the way, anti nuclear weapons in concept. And there's not one satanic reference anywhere on it! Except maybe the Boris Vallejo cover.

Records and review materials courtesy of Atlantic Sounds,
138 Volusia Avenue, Daytona Beach.

The Firm

Mean Business

A more musically successful follow up to their debut album, Mean Business is still, by no means, the best The Firm can come up with. True, Fortune Hunter is a really cool song, but there's still something lacking. It could be that no matter what Jimmy Page and Paul Rodgers do, the music still ends up sounding more like Free or Bad Company. And it's not just because of Rodgers' voice. You'd think that a Bad Company / Bad Company fusion would create something more spectacular, heck Page's guitar wizardry, when it's not plain nonexistent, is too subdued. The Firm are capable of producing an extraordinary new sound, but until then, I guess Mean Business will just have to suffice.

Wynnton Marsalis

Hot House Flowers

At 23, Marsalis captured the attention of the music world by claiming the best artist award for both jazz and classical music, on unheard of feat, especially because he was so young. But doubt turns to instant belief whenever his music is played. Marsalis' trumpet playing is so masterful it sounds like it was being played by someone much older and more experienced. His is a very crisp, clear style that's so flowing, it's mystifying. Hot House Flowers is an excellent sampling of the magic that is Wynnton Marsalis' trumpet. Joined, as always, by his equally talented brother, sax player Branford Marsalis (who's now playing with Sing) Wynnton enchants with songs like When You Wish Upon A Star and the Hoagy Carmichael standard Sirius.

The Church

Heyday

From Australia comes another band trying to make into the paydirt scene by looks alone. Their music is really nothing to rave about, although I must admit Youth Worshipper and the instrumental Happy Hunting Ground are rather catchy tunes. The band really has no sound of their own. There's talent but not any real way to show it off. They're burdened by being part of the glut of European bands that all sound the same, purchase music with no real direction. The Church may rise above this, but it really doesn't seem likely. If you like The Dream Academy you might like them. Otherwise you probably won't.

Up With People hits Peabody Auditorium

By John Trombly
Avlon Staff Reporter

The international cast of Up With People will be performing their show "Beat of the Future" at the Peabody Auditorium on Thursday, February 27 at 8 p.m.

Sponsored by Atlantic Bank, Up With People's dynamic contemporary production features a talented cast and band of 130 from 15 countries.

"Beat of the Future" is an entertaining but thoughtful look at life in the 21st Century—barely a decade away—where there are floating cities, interstellar travel, songwriting computers and the global community of mankind.

Up With People's energetic style of entertainment has been acclaimed by audiences around the world and has been featured at an unprecedented four NFL super Bowl Halftimes including Super Bowl XX.

The audience is always a part of the Up With People. In "Beat of the Future," audience members may find themselves singing with a computer or dancing in the aisles with a Japanese lion.

In a medley of songs from Ragtime, the Big Bands and early Rock and Roll, the cast predicts that the music and dances of the past will be "Back in Style" in the year 2000, and today's top hits will be the golden oldies of the future.

With colorful costumes, songs and dances, Up With People continues its popular tradition of taking the audience on a musical tour around the world. This international medley includes a Chinese Ribbon Dance, the Russian "Gopak," a Scandinavian Polka and a good old-fashioned American Hoedown, to name a few.

The energy, the entertainment of over 100 young men and women from 20 countries fills the stage in Up With People's all new show, "Beat of the Future."

Noted futurist and space artist, Robert McCall, has contributed his work for two special multi-image segments of the show. McCall's murals and paintings are featured in Omni Magazine, at EPCOT Center in Orlando, and at the Smithsonian's National Space and Aeronautics

Museum in Washington, D.C.

Up With People's show "Beat of the Future" guarantees everyone an evening of exciting entertainment and leaves them with real optimism for the years to come.

Tickets are $8 for adults and $7 for students and senior citizens and are now on sale on all Atlantic Banks in the Daytona area.

The aim of Up With People is to encourage understanding among people of all nations through an international program involving young men and women who travel for a year, while staging a musical show.

'Come Blow Your Horn' performs at Playhouse

The Daytona Playhouse will join in the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the Broadway opening of Neil Simons' comedy "Come Blow Your Horn" on Friday, February 28th. "Come Blow Your Horn" opened in New York on February 22, 1961 to rave reviews and packed houses which marked Neil Simons' debut as one of America's most well-loved and well-known playwrights.

Production on Thursday, February 27 at 8 p.m.

Sponsored by Atlantic Bank, Up With People's dynamic contemporary production features a talented cast and band of 130 from 15 countries.

"Beat of the Future" is an entertaining but thoughtful look at life in the 21st Century—barely a decade away—where there are floating cities, interstellar travel, songwriting computers and the global community of mankind.

Up With People's energetic style of entertainment has been acclaimed by audiences around the world and has been featured at an unprecedented four NFL super Bowl Halftimes including Super Bowl XX.

The audience is always a part of the Up With People. In "Beat of the Future," audience members may find themselves singing with a computer or dancing in the aisles with a Japanese lion.

In a medley of songs from Ragtime, the Big Bands and early Rock and Roll, the cast predicts that the music and dances of the past will be "Back in Style" in the year 2000, and today's top hits will be the golden oldies of the future.

With colorful costumes, songs and dances, Up With People continues its popular tradition of taking the audience on a musical tour around the world. This international medley includes a Chinese Ribbon Dance, the Russian "Gopak," a Scandinavian Polka and a good old-fashioned American Hoedown, to name a few.

The energy, the entertainment of over 100 young men and women from 20 countries fills the stage in Up With People's all new show, "Beat of the Future."

Noted futurist and space artist, Robert McCall, has contributed his work for two special multi-image segments of the show. McCall's murals and paintings are featured in Omni Magazine, at EPCOT Center in Orlando, and at the Smithsonian's National Space and Aeronautics

Museum in Washington, D.C.

Up With People's show "Beat of the Future" guarantees everyone an evening of exciting entertainment and leaves them with real optimism for the years to come.

Tickets are $8 for adults and $7 for students and senior citizens and are now on sale on all Atlantic Banks in the Daytona area.

The aim of Up With People is to encourage understanding among people of all nations through an international program involving young men and women who travel for a year, while staging a musical show.

'Come Blow Your Horn' performs at Playhouse

The Daytona Playhouse will join in the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the Broadway opening of Neil Simons' comedy "Come Blow Your Horn" on Friday, February 28th. "Come Blow Your Horn" opened in New York on February 22, 1961 to rave reviews and packed houses which marked Neil Simons' debut as one of America's most well-loved and well-known playwrights.

Opening night is set for Friday, February 28th at 8 p.m. The opening night audience is invited to a champagne reception after the show. Additional performances are set for March 1, 2, 6, 7, 8, and 9. Showtime is at 8 p.m., with Sunday matinees at 2:30. Ticket prices are $6.00 for adults and $3.50 for children under 16. For Thursday evening performances tickets are $5.50 for adults. Box Office opens on Monday, February 24 for reservations. Box Office hours are from 1-5 p.m. Phone 255-2431 for reservations. Box Office hours are from 1-5 p.m. Phone 255-2431 for Box Office and more information.

'Alive on Arrival' to play in U.C. this Saturday

The first ERAU Coffee House of the year will be held on the University Center Flight Deck This Saturday, February 22, at 8 p.m. The event is being sponsored by the Christian Fellowship Club here on campus.

Alive on Arrival, a local band from Jacksonville, will provide the evening's entertainment. The six-member band, led by J.R. Roberts, has been together for two years performing contemporary rock music. Drew Lombar, the base player, is a former member of the band Grinder Switch.

The Coffee House will be a great opportunity for Embury-Riddle students to get acquainted in a relaxed atmosphere. Coffee will be served along with snacks. Admission is free, so bring a friend and enjoy a great evening out.

Caruso rocks Riddle!

Photos by Scott Peters

Last Tuesday, the energetic rock band Caruso entertained a crowded University Center last Tuesday evening at 9:00 p.m. The band played for over two hours and came back on stage for two encores.

Sponsored by the ERAU Entertainment Committee, Caruso

Photos by Scott Peters

Last Tuesday, the energetic rock band Caruso entertained a crowded University Center last Tuesday evening at 9:00 p.m. The band played for over two hours and came back on stage for two encores.

Sponsored by the ERAU Entertainment Committee, Caruso consists of four brothers: Mike, Joe, Dave, and Rob Caruso from Detroit, Michigan. The young pop band has combined an appealing image, distinct professionalism, and dynamite music to bring out the crowds - record-setting crowds like the one at Bradley University in Peoria, Illinois where Caruso set the mainstage concert attendance mark.

Caruso was recently nominated by the National Association for Campus Activities (NACA) for two categories, after only three years of performing on the college circuit. The high-spirited performers were nominated for Entertainers of the Year and Contemporary Artists of the Year.

Caruso is currently cutting their second album, and if it is as well-received as the band was last Tuesday, it should be a smash hit.